The USIP's published guidelines stipulated a 15-month review of the so-called initial stage (1945-1947) and delay the publication of information collected after the end of the "initial stage" in 1948 and until no further documentation from the time prior to 1948 has been brought to the attention of the committee. The publication will be delayed for "publication 60 months from the date January 20 days from the date "Data Collected" information is made public. It remains to be seen whether USIP's regard for the process of the release of the information is to the detriment of its goal to bring
